SEVEN MEN ARE CHARGED WITH BEING DRUNK

Seven men charged with drunkenness were lined up in police court to receive treatment at the hands of Judge W. H. Reeder and the men secured various sentences of from six months to suspended penalties.

Jack Dee was the unfortunate one to secure the limit. Upon his last visit before the judge, he asked for leniency and was given a suspended sentence after he had agreed to take a six months' sentence should he get drunk and be arrested again.

Dee tried to "crawl" out of his bargain this morning and gave the excuse that he suffered terribly from rheumatism. He said his system had become so weakened that the drinks did greater damage than they would have done on more favorable occasions.

Judge Reeder made him live up to his agreement and a six months' sentence was recorded.

Whether or not August Stein has an affinity for beer because of his name is not known, but he was adjudged guilty to being unlawfully drunk on Saturday. August wore an unattractive black eye but he offered no explanation as to how he came by it. The arresting officer was not present so Judge Reeder took the case under advisement until tomorrow morning.

James Smith said he was from Louisiana but it was not necessary for him to state as his accent was purely southern. He called the judge "suh" and promised to get drunk "no mo'." He was given a suspended sentence.

In the matter of the estate of Eliza Jane Hambleton, deceased, Judge Still III—Judge Nathan J. Harris is still confined to his room with a protracted illness, but he is improving. It will be some time yet, however, before he will be able to attend to court affairs.

Taylor Estate—In the matter of the estate and guardianship of Arthur Taylor, et al., minors, the petition for approval, allowance and settlement of final account, discharge and release has been granted.

At the Berges—James Deane of North Ogden and R. W. McGinnis have been released from the Berges hospital and Miss Helen Rackham has been admitted for treatment.

Marriage License—A marriage license has been issued to Adolph Pardene and Guiseppina Spruzal of Ogden.

No Arrests—Notwithstanding that this is circus day when the police are usually kept busy, the morning and afternoon were quiet. No arrests were made up to 3 o'clock.

On Sad Mission—Jailer Hagbert Anderson went to Salt Lake today to aid in any way the family of Professor Anton Pederson, the prominent musician, who died yesterday afternoon. Mr. Anderson was an old friend and countryman of Professor Pederson.

Railroad President—C. W. Vallery, president of the Colorado Midland railroad, passed through Ogden this morning in his private car on his way to Salt Lake from Denver.

High Official—J. C. Stubbs, formerly traffic director of the Southern Pacific and now a member of the advisory board, passed through Ogden from San Francisco to attend a meeting of the railroad officials in Chicago. Plans for the dissolution of the Southern and Union Pacific will be discussed. T. M. Schumacher, traffic manager of the El Paso and Southwestern railroad was a railroad visitor in Ogden today. He is returning by way of Ogden from a visit to the Pacific coast.

New Home—A. J. Johnson is building two residences on Lincoln avenue, between 21st and 22nd streets, that will cost about $2,000.

JOS. P. RANKIN IS ELECTED

Joseph P. Rankin of Ogden was elected senior vice-commander of this department at the annual reunion of the members of the G. A. R. in Salt Lake Saturday.

During the encampment, the announcement was made that sufficient funds will be raised by means of a note to permit the veterans to attend the national encampment at Gettysburg.

DEPUTIES ARE NAMED BY BOARD

The county board of commissioners this morning referred the petition of property owners for the opening of a road in West Warren to Commissioner Hunter.

L. E. Olsen of Hooper and Alma E. Waymont of Warren were appointed deputy sheriffs to serve without pay. Sprinkling contracts were let to Frank Wadsworth, Jr., of Riverdale; Henry Dalton of Roy; Joseph A. Montgomery of North Ogden; B. S. Chandler of Wilson; David Stanger of Marriott; Oscar Hadley of Garland; Harry D. Brown of Farr West and Richard Howell of Slatterville.

The Harrisville and Huntsville roads will be sprinkled under day contract and will be directed by the road commissioner.

Delegates appointed to attend the intermountain good roads convention at Boise, Idaho, June 10, 11 and 12, were Oscar Madison, Ogden; Frank Moore, Pleasant View; J. S. Storey, North Ogden and Andrew Allen, Huntsville.

The storm area extended from Logan to a point as far south as Provo. The temperature rose not sufficiently low, however, to cause any damage. The thermometers registered 42 degrees above zero in the city. Enough snow fell in mountains to whiten the landscape.

THEATERS

AT THE OGDEN.

As an opening production to their last week in Ogden, until next fall, the Arlington Stock company presented the strong western drama "Salomy Jane" at the Ogden theatre before a large house, last evening.

All the members of the company played their roles excellently. Miss Mayme Arlington, Thomas Pawley and Robert Pawley had the leading parts and handled them capably. The western costumes and scenery were features of the production. A different play will be produced each night this week. "The Man on the Box" will occupy the boards this evening and "Mildred" will be given on Tuesday. It is the intention of Manager Walter Arlington to play those dramas which proved to be the most popular during their long season in Ogden.

THEY MUST NOT SPEND THEIR MONEY

Judge W. H. Reeder has adopted a new policy in dealing with that class of men who are well advanced in years, yet spend their monthly pay check for the purpose of having a good time. The judge is going to see to it that the men place a portion of their earnings in a savings bank each month.

Two old men, charged with drunkenness, were given suspended sentences this morning by Judge Reeder after they had promised to come to the judge's office with their checks next pay day. The judge stated that he would go with them to a bank and see that part of the money is deposited.

The two who were released this morning after giving promises to appear with their checks next pay day were M. Moran and Sam Beattie. Both are over 60 years and have been working for a long time in the railroad yards. The two confessed that they had saved no money and found it impossible to get by a pay day without blowing in their money. Moran was willing to promise but it took Beattie several minutes to give his word that he would appear on the 15th of next month.

BICYCLE RIDERS CAUGHT BY OFFICER

As a result of numerous complaints to the effect that bicycle riders, in their haste to reach town after seeing the ball games at Glenwood park, have been riding on the sidewalks and cutting across parking on Canyon Road, Sergeant O. H. Mohman stationed himself at a favorable location yesterday afternoon and arrested eight alleged offenders.

Those arrested were James Fife, John McCammon, C. Richards, Irvin Moulding, Cornelius Saunders, A. Kurlucks, John Hanson and John Murphy.

With the exception of John Murphy, a Greek, all others are juveniles and they were turned over to Probation Officer H. C. Jacobs. Murphy pleaded guilty to riding on the sidewalk and was fined $5 by Judge W. H. Reeder in police court this morning.

The police state that the automobilists who speed down the road after the games will also receive attention.

Chicago, May 19.—Federal Judge Carpenter today postponed hearing of a motion for a new trial for Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, recently convicted of violation of the Mann white slave act. Postponement was due to the absence of Assistant United States District Attorney Parkin, who prosecuted the case.

BLACKMAILERS OF OGDEN ARE ARRESTED

Following information received from Miss Mary Nichols, a domestic, the police and a private detective of Salt Lake early this morning arrested two men and a woman as suspected blackmailers who have been active in Ogden of late. The names of those arrested were given as E. A. Edminster, 28 years old, Henry Johnson, 25 years old, and his wife, Alice Johnson.

Upon receiving the news, Detective George Wardlaw and Sheriff Thomas DeVine went to Salt Lake and it was learned that the Henry Johnson arrested is the man who was twice arrested and convicted of vagrancy in Ogden and that Alice Johnson is the girl with whom he was living in Ogden at that time.

Robert Ray, who gives his name as Edminster, was serving a sentence of 45 days in the Ogden city jail at the time of the robbery at Glenwood park, and therefore could not have been directly implicated in the affair.

The two men and the woman will be brought to Ogden this evening. Ray was arrested two months ago for the first time. According to the police, the girl, Alice Johnson had been supporting him at the Bennett rooming house. He was sentenced to serve 45 days in jail by Judge W. H. Reeder.

He had not been out but a few days when he was again arrested and the girl was also placed under arrest. Upon Ray being sentenced to 100 days in jail on the charge of vagrancy, the girl was released as the police believed she would go away from the city. On April 23, however, Ray escaped from the chain gang after serving three days and the two evidently reached Salt Lake together where they went under the name of Johnson, the girl's name.

Salt Lake, May 19.—Suspected of being blackmailers who have terrorized Ogden and, on the night of April 8, outgeneraled a trap set for them by the combined efforts of the Ogden police, the sheriff's force of Weber county and private detectives, escaping under a raking pistol fire, to which they replied with buckshot, with a sack containing $1000 belonging to Mrs. Ralph E. Bristol and Mrs. Thomas D. Dee, two men and a woman were arrested in Salt Lake at 1:30 o'clock this morning upon information furnished by operatives of the intermountain detective agency. The suspects are H. Johnson, 25; E. A. Edminster, 28, and Alice Johnson, 24, who declares she is the wife of H. Johnson.

It is said Edminster answers the description of the man who, on the night of May 3, appeared in front of an Ogden meeting house where a decoy sack, purported to contain gold, was placed in response to a second demand made in black hand letters. While he staggered up to the steps of the meeting house, apparently pretending to be under the influence of liquor, members of the Ogden police department saw him and the outcome of the arrest this morning may rest upon the ability of the Ogden police to identify. Also in the home of the Johnsons was found a black mask said to be similar to the mask used by the blackmailers on the night that they snatched the $1000 under the very noses of the combination of police, deputy sheriffs and private sleuths.

Girl Prominent in Case. For several days Miss Mary Nichols who poses as a servant girl, but who is said to be a detective, has worked at a residence on Third West between Sixth North and Seventh North. In a little cottage directly across the street she had watched the movements of a man and woman, who frequently were joined by another man. This man, she says, is Edminster. His movements were closely watched. He had been traced to the postoffice in Salt Lake and yesterday morning Miss Nichols appeared in the corridor when he did.

To a glance of Miss Nichols, who stood near the letter window, Edminster responded. According to the report from Postoffice this being a fact, it surprised her and she recalled having seen him before, but under what circumstances she was unable to recall last night. Soon they were buried in a conversation and the girl declares he commenced making advances toward her, describing how easy money could be made and not at the expense of degradation.

Visit Little Cottage. "Edminster suggested that we take a little trip to the home of some friends out near the Warm Springs. I consented and he became very confidential and told me he had a bunch of horses on the outskirts of Ogden, but he added there were other ways of making money and he would tell me some day. We arrived at the little cottage directly across the street from where I had worked. It was the little cottage where I had seen a man and woman living quietly. We waited a little while and then went away."

Later it is said that Edminster informed the young woman that he had lived for a night or two at the Adrian hotel, 240 S. West Temple. She found this to be true and later entered into conference with J. H. Parker, the operative for the intermountain detective agency. The conference took place at the apartments of Parker at the Panama hotel, 240 S. State. There they remained until 1 o'clock this morning, when Parker called Desk Sergeant William Keyt. He immediately sent Egbert to the Panama hotel. They returned to police headquarters with Parker and Miss Nichols.

Detectives Moroni Gillespie and H. H. Lyon were called into another conference. Immediately the detectives, patrolmen and the two private detectives went to the Johnson home on Third West. The young woman pointed out the house. She was then taken from the home of the suspects while Detective Gillespie and Patrolman Husbands entered. They found Sims and Mrs. Johnson in bed. Informed that they were under arrest, they became startled but soon regained their composure and dressed hurriedly. They refused to say anything. During the search of the house the black mask was discovered. Copies of letters thought to have been written by Mrs. Johnson in an even and unusually legible hand also were taken possession of. If the style corresponds with the black hand letters received by Mrs. Bristol and Mrs. Dee, demanding money under pain of death, authorities believe they will have another clew.

Immediately after Mr. and Mrs. Johnson had been locked in the city prison the detectives and patrolmen went to the Adrian hotel, where they found Edminster also asleep. Like Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, he became alarmed but regained his composure remarkably. He told the police he came from Ogden recently and had stopped at the Adrian hotel only one night previously. He also said he had a bunch of horses on the outskirts of Ogden but would say no more.

After Edminster and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson had been locked in the city prison the detectives and patrolmen, upon advice of Parker, decided to make no further investigation until early this forenoon, when the Ogden police will be communicated with. Jailers were instructed to closely watch the cells occupied by the suspects.

Society

Mrs. Mary Connor left Saturday morning for Omaha, Neb., where she was summoned, owing to the serious illness of her brother Mr. James Hare.

Mrs. P. C. Krauss and daughter Mabel and Katherine went to Salt Lake today to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Miss Ivah Wilson entertained Miss Hill of Seattle, Wash., on Monday last at the Hermitage.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. Miss Ellen Ryan was given a pleasant surprise on her nineteenth birthday, May 15, when a number of her friends arrived to happily celebrate the occasion. Music, games and a tempting repast rounded out the evening.

Those present were: Misses Iris Malone, Vera Frey, Rosamond Laird, Marguerite long, Helen Johnson, Carrie Riddle, Gladys Glasdale, Eva Erh, Pearl Chapman, Pansy Eury, Marguerite Sims, Myrtle Higley, Ruby Malan, Deane Rawson, Alta Rawson, Lucile Griffin, Hazel Harmonson; Mesdames Davis, Ryan and Robertson.

GRADUATION RECITAL. Miss Clara Beatrice Brewer, daughter of ex-Mayor Alex Brewer of Ogden, and Miss Marian Duncan of Texas, were heard in recital Tuesday evening, May 13, at National Park seminary. Forest Glen, Maryland, and high compliment was paid these talented young ladies. Miss Brewer has a host of admiring Ogden friends who rejoice at her success at the seminary.

The following program was given: Pianoforte, Miss Brewer. Rondo Capriccioso, op. 14, Felix Mendelssohn. Etude, G minor, Moritz Moszkowski. Crescendo, Per Lasson. Waltz, op. 34, No. 1, Frederic Chopin. Polonaise, E major, Franz Liszt. Elouction and Dramatic Art, Miss Duncan. A Royal Princess, Christina Rossetti. A Sisterly Scheme, Henry C. Bunney. Nydia, the Blind Girl of Pompeii, Lord Lytton. Adapted from "The Last Days of Pompeii."

Nydia was born in Thessaly, of good family. She afterward became a slave. Her master, Glaucus, a young and wealthy Athenian, bought her to save her from cruel treatment and was the object of her grateful adoration ever after. At this time she was a prisoner in the palace of Arbaces; and Glaucus, falsely accused of murder, was condemned to meet the lions in the arena, in an even and unusually legible hand also were taken possession of. ## TRAMPS CAUSE CIRCUS TRAIN TO STOP

The Sells-Floto circus trains, crossing the state of Nevada, had to be stopped at Golconda long enough to allow the men in charge to drive fifty tramps from under the circus wagons. The hoboes had boarded the trains near Winnemucca.

Members of the circus state that an army of tramps is moving toward Ogden along the Southern Pacific railway.

Leaving Elko, Nevada, at midnight, the Sells-Floto trains were in a heavy storm until early this morning. At Reno, Nevada, the circus was attended by 600 members of the divorce colony.

DAVID ECCLES RETURNS HOME

David C. Eccles returned last evening from an extended trip east on business connected with the Eccles interests. He states that conditions appear to be favorable in the east but he had nothing of any particular importance to give out respecting his trip, saying it was purely a personal matter.

Respecting the starting of building operations on the Eccles skyscraper before a decision of the Utah court is handed down, Mr. Eccles stated that he could say nothing about it as he had not yet seen the contractor, and that until he saw him he could give no opinion.
